I wish to receive the following communications from The British BMG Federation

- 1. Quarterly newsletter and biennial Festival booklet Yes/No (delete as necessary)
- 2. Occasional emails with news Yes/No (delete as necessary)

Members should read and sign the following Privacy Notice which sets out how the British BMG Federation (the Federation) will use and process personal data provided by its members

- The Data Controller for the Federation is David Wade. He may be contacted by email on david@davidwwade.co.uk in the event that you have any queries concerning the data held about you by the Federation.
- The Federation holds your data in order to keep you informed about activities within the Federation, to send you newsletters and other communications by email, post and telephone. The legal basis for the Federation to hold this data is that members have given consent for their data to be processed in this way.
- Members' details will primarily be held by the Data Processor of the Federation, Sandra Woodruff. Other committee members and volunteers will be provided with data when necessary, e.g. when a member has applied to attend a Workshop at an event, when the Tutor will need to be aware of attendees' names.
- The Federation does not transfer data across borders.
- Data will be held for a maximum of six years.
- Members can request details of their data held by the Federation. A request in writing will be answered under normal circumstances within 30 days. There is no fee for this. Members can ask for all data to be deleted from the Federation's data base 'as a right to be forgotten'. Members also have the right to require changes to data held where such data is not correct.
- Processing of Members' personal data is carried out under a contractual requirement between the Member and the Federation. The data is held in order to carry out the 'business' of the organisation and to meet the needs of its Members.
- The Federation does not use any systems that generate automated decision making.

I have read and understood the content of the above Notice. Signed
